"IN THE DAYS OF BUFFALO BILL"

Universal Historical Chapter-Play

Starring ART ACORD

No. 6—"Prisoners of the Sioux"

ON the way to the Sioux camp, Art drops his uniform buttons on the trail. The prisoners are brought into the presence of Sitting Bill, Chief of the Sioux Indians. Art fights several Indians who annoy Alice. For this he is condemned to die by torture. Art gives Alice the flag and picture, as well as the mesquite. She tells her father of the brother's death in battle. Ashley tells Carter that on condition that Carter's land is turned over to him (Ashley), he will allow Alice to escape with him when the Indian, whom Ashley has bribed, leads the way. While Carter is considering this proposition Ashley escapes alone with the Indians.

A Daring Ruse

Meanwhile Col. Cody reaches Fort Kearney, and leaves there for the Carter cabin to see Art, and just as Alden and the troopers leave the cabin, Cody arrives. He follows the trail left by the Indians and their prisoners and reaches the spot where Art has dropped his first button. He follows them and reaches the Indian camp. He crawls up to the tent where Art is confined under the guard of a single Indian. He is left alone when some Indians take Alice and Carter to the chief for sentence.
